

Frank Sullivan Logue

Parish Experience

King of Peace, Kingsland, GA; 2000 - Present; Vicar

- Served as the church planter. The mission has grown from three to more than 200 members with an ASA of 138. Annual budget is $180,000.

King of Peace Episcopal Day School, Kingsland, GA; 2004 - Present; President

- Worked with a team to found a full-day, full-year preschool which emphasizes education, including Christian education. The school has 68 students, a staff of 21 (17 of whom are full-time employees.) Annual budget $405,000.

Church of the Spirit, Alexandria, VA; 1997 - 20; Lay Pastor

- Preached monthly. Initiated a program of newcomer assimilation. The suburban Washington, DC, mission grew from four people to an ASA of 150 during my involvement.

St. Philip's Church, Baden, Maryland; 1998 - 1999; Seminarian

- Preached at least monthly. Led Morning Prayer services monthly. Finished my time with the congregation as Seminarian-in-charge. St. Philip's is an historically black congregation in a rural area with an ASA of 50.

St. Hilary's Church, Kibondo, Tanzania; Summer 1998; Intern

- Worked in the Anglican Church of Tanzania as part of a cross-cultural internship. Took part in two youth rallies, preached, made hospital and home visits. ASA of 225.

Trinity Church, Statesboro, GA, and St. Peter's Church, Rome, GA; 1994 - 1997; Layperson

- Developed a children's church in Statesboro; worked with existing one in Rome. Taught Vacation Bible School at both churches. Led EYC and served on the Vestry in Rome.

Education

- Georgia Southern University; B.A. in German, minor in Linguistics; 1984
Selected by the faculty for the German Language honors Award.
- Virginia Theological Seminary; M.Div. (Cum laude); 2000
Honors Thesis: "Jonah – A narrative Critical Reading"
Teaching Assistant in Greek 1999-2000.
Selected by the faculty for the Harris Leadership Award and the Armistead Boothe Award in Biblical Languages

Personal

- Married since 1985 to Victoria Steele Logue.
- One daughter, Mary Griffin Logue, age 17.
- Hiked the entire 2,100-mile Appalachian Trail with my wife in 1988.
- Additional information at www.kingofpeace.org/pastor.htm

Other

Previous Work Experience

- For 13 years after college, I worked with photography, writing, and graphic design. The mix varied with the jobs, but I always worked in all three of those areas at once.
- Self-employed writer, photographer, and graphic designer; 1988 - 1997; Co-wrote books; worked as a Contributing Editor for Shutterbug magazine, and co-wrote numerous articles for regional and national magazines.
- Art Director/Production Manager, Community Associations Institute, Alexandria, VA; 1988 - 1990; maintained oversight of $350,000 publishing program, including employee supervision, hiring, and firing for the four employees in the Communications Department.
- Photographer, Rome News-Tribune, Rome, GA; 1986 - 1988
- Photographer, Warner Robins Daily Sun, Warner Robins, GA; 1984 - 1986

Church-Related Experience

- Commission on Ministry member for the Diocese of Georgia since 2002
- Alternate deputy to The General Convention of the Episcopal Church 2003, Deputy in 2006, elected Deputy for 2009
- Presenter for the Presiding Bishop's Conference on Church Planting, 2005
- Chosen in 2008 to take part in The Episcopal Church's Network of Ministry Innovator's, a ministry in The Episcopal Church
- Active in Diocese of Georgia programs since 2000, including Cursillo, Happening, New Beginnings, and Summer Camp
- Worked with team to create three successful retreats for Honey Creek, called Journey to Wholeness, 2007-2008

Volunteer Experience

- Habitat for Humanity of Camden County, GA; 2000 - 2008; served as board member, chair of two committees, and three-time president of local Habitat affiliate. Oversight responsibility for a staff of even working for the affiliate and tis ReStore, which was started while I was president. Annual budget $425,000.
- Board of Managers Appalachian Trail conference (ATC); 1995 - 1999; The ATC is a 23,000-member hiking organization that has a unique delegation agreement with the National Park Service, charging the Board of Managers with the management of the 2,100-mile Appalachian Trail, through its then $2.5 million federally-funded budget.
- ATC Publication Committee; 1990 - 1999; This committee runs the conference's publishing business with sales of more than $500,000 annually, including selecting books for publication and overseeing operations.

Writing Experience

- Bi-weekly religion column for the Tribune and Georgian newspaper; 2001 - present; contributed articles and sermons to Episcopal Life, The Anglican Digest, and The Episcopal Church's web-based "Sermons that Work" series.
- Faithfulness to the Vision in Preaching as Prophetic Calling: Sermons that Work XII (ed. by Roger Alling and David Schlafer, Morehouse Publishing, 2004)
- Co-author (with Victoria Logue) of ten books with more than 150,000 total books in print, including Guide to the Blue Ridge Parkway (Menasha Ridge Press, 1998); Touring the Backroads of North and South Georgia (John F. Blair, 1997); Kids Outdoors (McGraw Hill, 1996); and the Appalachian Trail Backpacker (Mensaha Ridge Press, 1990)