Parish Experience

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Savannah, GA; 1987 - Present; Rector

All the normal responsibilities associated with a Rector who primarily functions as Pastor, Preacher, and Liturgical Leader for the parish community.

- Liturgical
Coordinate and ensure the celebration of the Eucharist of Sunday at 8:00 AM, 10:00 AM & 6:00 PM, and daily, Monday - Friday; daily services of Morning and Evening Prayer; Solemn celebration of all Red Letter Feasts and Holy Days
- Pastoral
Caring for the diverse needs of a parish of 300 active members, including: regularly-scheduled times for the Sacrament of Reconciliation; visiting the sick and shut-in; pre-marital, baptism, crisis, and family counseling; assisting parishioners in the planning and implementation of outreach ministries.
- Teaching
Supervise ongoing Catechetical class; Sunday morning adult education class; supervision of Youth Christian Education volunteers; mentor for Commission on Ministry Aspirant discernment program; courses for Diaconal training program; organize Interfaith theological forums; preparation of Advent and Lenten series; two weekly bible study groups.
- St. Paul's Development Corporation, Chairman
An organization founded by the leadership of the parish in 1995 to develop low and moderate income housing for the Thomas Square Historic District. By building partnerships with city, state, and private agencies we have converted an abandoned hospital into senior housing and store fronts for small businesses. We have also rebuilt a city block of housing which was in danger of being torn down. We have also encouraged and enabled similar groups in the area and have been instrumental in forming coalitions for neighborhood improvement.

St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, Burroughs, GA; 2000 - Present; Vicar

Provide for the pastoral and spiritual needs of an historic African American congregation. Work with Mission and community leaders to preserve the past and identify new leaders for the future of a unique cultural asset.

Savannah Convocation; 1989 - 1994, 2005 - Present; Dean

As Convocation Dean, my responsibilities include: convening the monthly clericus meeting, presiding at the bi-annual Convocation Council, and serving with the other Deans as Bishop's Council of advice. During my two tenures, I have played an instrumental part in establishing the development of Convocation-wide events for parish enrichment, such as: Quiet Days, The School of Religion, Vacation Bible School, joint EYC events, Convocation Young Adult and College Ministry, and cooperative outreach projects.
