Callings (employment)

Rector, Grace Episcopal Church, Orange Park (suburban Jacksonville), Florida. November, 2006 to present.

After 965 of 1,000 members of Grace departed on Easter, 2006 due to conflict with The Episcopal Church, we are re-growing the church from a remaining core of 35 to approximately 400 members today. Average Sunday Attendance (2008) of 150. Rector of parish day school (3 year olds to 6th grade) of approx. 200 students.

Canon to the Ordinary, Episcopal Diocese of Florida, the Rt. Rev. Samuel Johnson Howard, Bishop, Jacksonville, Florida. May, 2004 - February, 2007.

As my first calling after seminary, I was Chief of Staff for the Office of the Bishop and served as Deployment Officer for the diocese. I represented the bishop in all aspects of diocesan life, particularly managing clergy and congregational conflict within the diocese. I reorganized the finances of the diocese and toward end of tenure, designed the structure to begin rebuilding of congregations in the diocese.
